

Board Charter

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This Board Charter sets out the principles for the operation of the board of directors (Board) of Comms Group Ltd (Company) and describes the functions of the Board.
- 1.2 This Board Charter and the charters adopted by the Board for the committees established by the Board have been adopted on the basis that good corporate governance adds to the performance of the Company and creates shareholder value and engenders the confidence of the investment market.
- 1.3 The Board is accountable to shareholders for the performance of the Company and is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and its related bodies corporate (Group).
- 1.4 The purpose of this charter is to:
- (a) promote high standards of corporate governance;
 - (b) clarify the role and responsibilities of the board; and
 - (c) enable the board to provide leadership and guide the Company's strategic direction, driving its performance and overseeing the activities of management and the operation of the Company.
- 1.5 This charter is supported by the code of conduct for directors, senior executives and all other employees, the charters for the People and Remuneration Committee and Audit Risk and Compliance Committee, Share Trading Policy and the Market Disclosure Protocol.
- 1.6 For the purpose of this charter, senior executives include all officers and employees who have the opportunity to materially influence the integrity, strategy and operation of the Company and its financial performance.

2. BOARD SIZE, COMPOSITION AND INDEPENDENCE

- 2.1 There must be a minimum of 3 directors and may only be a maximum of 10 directors.
- 2.2 The board should ideally comprise:
- (a) a majority of non-executive directors;
 - (b) at least two independent non-executive directors;
 - (c) directors with an appropriate range of skills, experience and expertise;
 - (d) directors who can understand and competently deal with current and emerging business issues; and
 - (e) directors who can effectively review and challenge the performance of management and exercise independent judgment.

- (f) The board may appoint a director that is an executive of the Company.
- 2.3 An independent non-executive director is one who:
- (a) is independent of management;
 - (b) free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the independent exercise of their unfettered and independent judgment; and
 - (c) otherwise meets the criteria for independence set out in the ASX Principles and Recommendations published by the ASX Corporate Governance Council.
- 2.4 The Board has formulated various criteria to determine the independence of directors.
- 2.5 The Board regularly assess the independence of each non-executive director who are required to provide to the Board all information relevant to his or her assessment.
- 2.6 If a director's independent status changes, this should be immediately disclosed and explained to the market.
- 2.7 The Company will aim to have a majority of independent non-executive directors, however this may not always be practicable given the size of the board and the circumstances of the Group, including the nature of the Group's business. Accordingly, the directors have absolute discretion to determine the appropriate composition of the board from time to time.
- 2.8 The People and Remuneration Committee is responsible for recommending candidates for appointment to the board.
- 2.9 Each director is appointed by a formal letter of appointment setting out the key terms and conditions of their appointment to ensure that each director clearly understands the Company's expectations of him or her.

3. THE BOARD'S ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 3.1 The Board is responsible for:
- (a) overseeing the Group, including its control and accountability systems;
 - (b) appointing and removing the chief executive officer;
 - (c) monitoring the performance of the chief executive officer;
 - (d) where appropriate, ratifying the appointment and removal of senior executives;
 - (e) ratifying other senior executive appointments, organisational changes and senior management remuneration policies and practices;

- (f) ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- (g) ensuring the board is given sufficient information to enable it to perform its functions, set strategies and monitor performance; and
- (h) acting within authority delegated by the board.

9.6 The board has in place procedures to assess the performance of the chief executive officer and executive team (if appointed).

10. DIRECTORS

10.1 Directors are expected to attend and participate in board meetings and meetings of committees on which they serve.

10.2 Directors are expected to spend the time needed, and meet as often as necessary, to properly discharge their responsibilities.

10.3 Directors are expected to review meeting materials before board meetings and committee meetings.

10.4 Directors are encouraged to ask questions of, request information from, and raise any issue of concern with, management. Directors are encouraged, where possible, to ask any questions and raise issues of concern before a meeting so that management is prepared to address them.

10.5 Directors must exercise independent judgment when making decisions.

10.6 Publicly, directors are expected to support the letter and spirit of board decisions.

10.7 Directors must keep board information, discussions, deliberations, and decisions that are not publicly known, confidential.

10.8 Directors must comply with their legal duties when discharging their responsibilities as directors. Broadly, these duties are:

- (a) to act in good faith and in the best interests of the Company; and
- (b) to act with care and diligence;
- (c) to act for proper purposes;
- (d) to avoid a conflict of interest or duty; and

- (e) to refrain from making improper use of information gained through the position of director or taking improper advantage of the position of director.

11. NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

- 11.1 Non-executive directors should consider the benefits of conferring regularly without management present, including at scheduled sessions.
- 11.2 These discussions of non-executive directors can be facilitated by the chair or lead independent director (if any).

12. COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company Secretary is appointed by the Board and is accountable directly to the Board through the Chair on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

13. CONFLICTS

- 13.1 Directors are expected to be sensitive to conflicts of interest or duty that may arise and mindful of their fiduciary obligations.
- 13.2 Directors must:
 - (a) disclose to the board any actual or potential conflict of interest or duty that might reasonably be thought to exist as soon as the situation arises;
 - (b) take necessary and reasonable action to resolve or avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest or duty; and
 - (c) comply with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Company's constitution in relation to disclosing material personal interests and restrictions on voting.
- 13.3 If a conflict exists, it is expected that any director to whom the conflict relates will leave the room when the board is discussing any matter to which the conflict relates.
- 13.4 Directors are expected to inform the chairperson of the board of any proposed appointment to the board or executive of another Company as soon as practicable.

14. ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND INDEPENDENT ADVICE BY DIRECTORS

- 14.1 Directors have access any information they consider necessary to fulfil their responsibilities and to exercise independent judgment when making decisions.
- 14.2 Directors have access to:
 - (a) management to seek explanations and information from management; and

(b) auditors, both internal and external, to seek explanations and information from them without management being present.

14.3 Directors may seek any independent professional advice they consider necessary to fulfil their responsibilities and to exercise independent judgment when making decisions in accordance with the procedure agreed by the directors.

14.4 If the chairperson of the board consents, the Company will pay a director's costs of seeking independent professional advice. That consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

15. RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

15.1 At every annual general meeting, one-third of the directors (to the nearest whole number) must retire, and are eligible to seek re-election.

15.2 A director must retire at the end of the third annual general meeting after the director's appointment even if it means that more than one-third of directors retire at an annual general meeting.

15.3 Those directors who have been longest in office since their last appointment must retire by rotation. Directors appointed on the same day may agree among themselves or determine by lot who must retire.

15.4 The chief executive officer or a director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the board is not subject to retirement by rotation and is not taken into account when determining how many directors must retire by rotation. A director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the board must retire at the next annual general meeting after their appointment.

16. CODES OF CONDUCT

16.1 The Group has adopted a corporate code of conduct setting out its legal and other obligations to all legitimate stakeholders including employees, customers and the community.

16.2 The Group has adopted a code of conduct for directors, senior executives and all other employees setting out required standards of behaviour, for the benefit of all shareholders.

16.3 Each director, officer and employee will be given a copy of the code of conduct applicable to their position when joining the Group.

17. COMMUNICATION OF INFORMATION

17.1 The Board will:

- (a) communicate effectively with shareholders;
- (b) give shareholders ready access to balanced and understandable information about the Group and its corporate goals; and
- (c) make it easy for shareholders to participate in general meetings.
